“ Dear Tom and boys, Myrna and I became Facebook friends this past year after not seeing one another since 1979. I was shocked and saddened by hearing the sad news today. She was such an organizer in the 70's when she asked me to join the St. Mary's Passport productions as a saxophone and other instruments performer. She was beautiful inside and outside. Please rest in the comfort that she is with Jesus and we will all get to see one another in the future. Lovingly, Barb Marx

“ I remember when Myra and my Mom drove Tom and me to Indiana University to check out the school. And those nights at the lake house. Myrna lived life to the fullest and I will always remember her that way.

“ You have our deepest condolences at losing Myrna. We knew your family as wonderful next-door neighbors prior to your Florida move. One incident I remember vividly was our heading home from a night out where Myrna smilingly convinced a Deerfield traffic cop that I had indeed properly stopped before turning right. With three of us as excellent witnesses, what chance did he have? We pray that Jesus will ease your pain and fill your minds with magnificent memories very soon.
