

Nada Trivanovic

February 27, 1941 - February 16, 2024

Nada Trivanovic, 82, passed away peacefully on Friday, Feb. 16, 2024 surrounded by her children in Charlotte, North Carolina. She was born Feb. 27, 1941 in Stip, Yugoslavia (present day North Macedonia) and grew up in Kragujevac, Serbia. After receiving her law degree from the University of Belgrade, she met the love of her life, Ilija Trivanovic. In 1971, they emigrated to the United States and created a fulfilling life with their three children.

Nada was a loving wife and committed mother and homemaker, dedicating her love, time and energy to raising her three children. Her love and generosity for her grandchildren was boundless and she always enjoyed making tasty specialties in the kitchen for them. Culinary pursuits were a source of pride, and she was known for delicious and abundant feasts and desserts at Slava. Nada had a passion for gardening and created an amazing Monet-like atmosphere year-round.

She is survived by daughter Ana (Matthew) Versaggi, son Vuk (Shanin) Trivanovic, son-in-law Zoran Mihajlovic, nine grandchildren, sister Vera and greatly love cousins, nieces and nephews. She will be greatly missed by her family and friends.

She was preceded in death by her husband Ilija Trivanovic in 2022 and by her daughter, Una Mihajlovic in 2017.

A visitation will begin at 10:00 am until time of service at 11:00 am on Friday, Feb. 23, 2024 at St. Sava Serbian Orthodox Monastery and Cemetery in Libertyville.
