“ I am so sorry to hear the news of Nancy's passing. Nancy was vivacious and loving. I so appreciated the trip she made to my sons graduation in Illinois. I know how much she will be missed by her children and grandchildren.

“ So sorry for the loss of such a lovely lady; loving and sweet and kind and smart, . . . just like her mom. Such a loss. She was so vital and active and loving life and enjoying her retirement and her grandkids. She will truly be missed. Even when we don't talk often or see each other often, we always knew she was there and we were always thinking of each other and wanting the best for each other.

“ Dear Ani and family,
I am so sorry for your sudden loss. There are no words to express the feelings you must feel, but I pray you believe your Mom is in heaven and looking down, watching over, smiling, and loving every moment of the rest of your life. You will feel her in the wind, rain, sun, and snow. You will see her in rainbows, flowers, breezes and snow flakes. She will always be in your life.
I wish I could help you in your time of sadness. Let me know what I can do to help.
Love, Mary

“ Nancy's passing has impacted many people's lives, as evidenced by all the family and friends who paid their respects over the past several days. Her presence will be deeply missed by so many people, but her spirit lives on in her four children. Their integrity, kindness, and commitment to family are traits that were shaped by their mother and which made her very proud. I am especially grateful of these qualities in her youngest son (my son-in-law). Who he is as a person, husband, and father are a living tribute to his deeply-loved mother.

“ Words cannot express the shock of a sudden death--especially one of such a beautiful soul. Nancy & Jim were good friends, and shared many visits with us. Nancy was gentle, kind and brought a sense of peace with her wherever she went. She was active and so creative with her sewing & knitting. Our condolences to all of her family--they meant everything to her!
