“ Neva was my P.E.O. sister in Chapter OF, IL before I moved to FL. From the moment I met her, I felt a very special connection. She always had that mischievous sparkle in her eyes and a funny story to tell. She was always a pleasure to be around and a lovely lady, inside and out! Thank you, Neva, for all the hugs and laughs. You will be missed dearly by all your "sisters!"

“ She was my great grandmother, my twin. (We had the same birthday, 82 years apart. I miss her so much. I missed her funeral due to personal issues, and I regret it so much. But I'm so glad I was able to meet her and have me a part of her life and her a part of mine. She will be missed by many.
