“ I wish there were more memories, I'm still processing her passing and I will always remember her smile and her laugh. I will be forever grateful for her because she gave me life. I understand why I didn't have her in my life growing up and I hope she knows I'm not mad and even though we didn't talk much knowing there will never be another chance hits me harder than I could imagine, I wish I knew more and the feeling I had as a little girl are back and I'm trying to come to terms with it but it's not doing well at all. I will be left with a void that will never be filled or understood by many I am left to mourn the loss of the person who put me on this earth and I will never forget the memories we had even if it's not many and appreciate her I hope she's with Jenny and they are reconnected in heaven. I can't even type and not cry bc I wish I could have told her I've never been angry or held hate in my heart at her I just need closure and if anyone in the family could help please call me Jesse has my.
