“Oh my “cookie”.... When I heard of your passing, I was completely heartbroken. My dear friend, may you rest in Heaven and enjoy eternal life. I will so very much miss you and will be forever grateful for our friendship. Love you always!

“My sincerest condolences. Patty was my boss for 2 years. We laughed at “boss” because we quickly became good friends that were lucky enough to work closely together day in and day out. We shared so many laughs. Even after I left GBT, we still connected regularly to catch up. She loved her family so much. Patty was always there to listen, laugh, share frustrations with and even cry with you. I am devastated that this light is no longer here and I will carry her with me always. Sending all my love to her many friends and family.

“ Patty was the most inviting, friendly and caring person I ever knew. Patty always offered help, advice and was a go to person to connect when you seen her at an event as everyone was thrilled to see Patty. We will miss our sweet caring and funny Patty. Attending a Hawk game will never be the same without her smile greeting everyone.

“Dear Patty or Patricia (in an English accent) if we were bickering. What a wonderful rollercoaster tens years of working together. I will remember these times fondly and whilst we haven't work together for a few years now but it would always be a highlight seeing you when I came to Chicago. I am heartbroken not to be there today but will be thinking of you and will raise a toast to you this evening. May you rest in peace, your British friend. Stuart

“ It was Patty most tomes , and occasionally Patricia which always made you laugh as you wondered what you had. Done wrong, our world has lost a special and beautiful person, I will not forgot our thousands of calls to discuss strategy and my daughters Lola and Mia who virtually got to know you , your warmth and love is special , our first meets and more recently in November when you came out to pick me up from the Renaissance downtown Chicago to take me to a lovely restaurant that you reminded me was very difficult to get a table, you shared your love for your homeland Greece and your nieces sharing photos, we laughed and my only regret was to not get a beautiful photo of you xxx
I am going to miss our chats and appreciated everything you did for myself and our Cisco family, you commitment and dedication was clear for everyone who came in contact with you to see.
“Patti what are you smiling about” remember that we often chatted about that meeting ,
To someone taken from us too early and until we meet in heaven, please rest and I know you are us and watching our progress.
I can't forget how you supported me as I prepared for my biggest challenge to run the London Marathon and the Wats App message you sent only on the 11th May to congratulate me on completing it and ask how my holiday was ❤️
Love you to the moon and back, hugs from your Cisco Friend

“ I have been struggling with what to say - Patty was an amazing person and one that I will miss terribly. She was a strong, independent person - not afraid to give her advise or her opinion when it was needed. She was loved by all who worked with her.
She left a lasting impression on myself and I will never forget her.
Sending prays to her family in this most difficult time. She was a very special person and will hold a place in my heart forever.

“ Sending my prayers to all of Patty's family and to her many friends. The words that have been repeated by her co workers are; how kind she was, a great mentor, she would support others, she was so very smart, she listened and was just as excited to see our children reach milestones as we were. She truly was one of a kind and I miss her dearly.

“ I have worked with Patty for more years than I can remember. We often said we were soul sisters, born 2 days apart in the same month & year! We had so many personal connections in common and too often spent half our time shooting the breeze instead of focusing on the work problem at hand. She is a light gone too soon. I will miss her dearly. My deepest condolences to all of Patty's family and everyone who loved her. Goodbye my friend, may you fly free on angel's wings.

“ The day I first met Patty was an everlasting memory. I went to see my brother Scott and he introduced me to Patty. Wow. What a free spirit. Patty took me under her wing and showed me all her favorite's watering holes during this time. (Late 1990's). I was a little introverted at the time but she made my feel special and included. We talked about music and jammed to Red Hot Chilli Peppers between visits. (Both singing at our loudest) We shared something special during this time. I remember it like yesterday. Thank you Patty for giving me the special time w/ you!
