“ Dr. Pan is special to me!

Dr. Pan is my teacher when I was in medical school. As a teacher, Dr. Pan has trained hundreds and thousands yang physicians and numerous graduate students. Dr. Pan is my colleague when I graduated from the medical school. As colleagues, Dr. Pan and I have exchanged the medical information, consulted with each other, from neurological disorders and infectious diseases, and vice versa. Dr. Pan becomes my friend since 1998 when he came to US following his retirement, as friends, we have shared the meals, traveled in a same vehicle and laughed together, we shared happiness and sadness, we have had good times over the last 20 years. Dr. Pan is an excellent physician, has served his thousands and thousands patients over 40 years with his warmest heart, and earned the praise and respect from every each of them. Dr. Pan is a well-known expert in infectious diseases, has made a great contribution to this field of medicine. Dr. Pan is a fighter, put up a tremendous fight against his illness, with all his effort and strength. Dr. Pan give us his last seminar of infectious liver disease at his 85 birthday party of Dec. 20, 2018.

Dr. Pan is a great father, along with his lovely wife Dr. Zhang, raised three beautiful and successful daughters. Dr. Pan is a beloved grand father, with six magnificent grand children.

Dr. Pan left us today, you will be in my heart forever,

Dr. Pan, I miss you!
