

Peter Capaccio

November 22, 1956 - November 14, 2015

Peter Paul Capaccio, 58, of Highwood, IL, passed unexpectedly Saturday, November 14, at his home. Beloved father of Jennifer Mennella, Peter Paul, Jr. and beloved former husband and dear friend of Patricia Capaccio, beloved son of Marietta Hughes and Pasquale (Pat) (deceased), beloved brother of Claire Hughes Panebianco (deceased), Christopher Hughes, Michael Hughes and Carolyn Maria Capaccio. Peter was born and raised in New Jersey, earned a bachelors degree from from Rutgers University, and began a successful career in investment management, leading teams at firms including Citibank, The Lexington Funds, and Harris Bank Investment Products. Peter lived for a number of years in Illinois, and loved fishing, shooting, cooking, and spending time, preferably outdoors, with his children. He was passionate about economic empowerment and education, and his gregariousness, open heart, wicked sense of humor and Donald Duck imitation will be sorely missed by all who love him. The family will conduct two memorial services, the first on Saturday, November 21st at Burnett-Dane Funeral Home in Libertyville, IL, Visitation from 1-3 PM and Service to follow and the second memorial will take place on Saturday, January 9, 2016 at 2 PM at St. Paul's Congregational Church, United Church of Christ, in Nutley, NJ.

“ Peter was one of the strongest and most selfless people I know. He put family first above all else and never, ever hesitated to help a friend in need. He had so many more dreams left to live and he was taken from us all far too soon. The world was a better place while he was with us and he will be missed terribly. My sincere condolences to his precious children and all of his family.

“ I am still in shock and filled with sadness. Peter had a positivity and will to live, help others, to grow personally and professionally, and to really enjoy life. I'm sad he did not get to do more of that. He was taken from us so soon.

I send my heartfelt deepest sympathy to his family, children, friends and colleagues. I am sorry for your pain and loss. May memories, your circle of support, and time bring you comfort.

“ I had the privilege of working with Peter at Harris Bank. A brilliant mind, with boundless energy, enthusiasm, passion for his work, a wonderful sense of humor, a great leader and mentor who was always thoughtful and considerate of others. I also had the good fortune to run into Peter a few years ago at a suburban hockey rink and discovered that our sons played the same position (goalie, right Peter Paul Jr.?) We had reconnected recently and it was great to be in touch again. My deepest sympathy to his family and friends.

“ Dear Pat and Family,

We are so very sorry to hear of the passing of Peter. He was always friend and neighbor. I will never forget the morning both of you and Kinsella's showed up and got to work on our driveway after a miserable snow storm. You and Peter worked with shovel and snow blower until we were dugout. We will always hold fond memories of him. We will keep all of the family in our prayers. With sincerest sympathy, Tom & Chris Murrens

“ I became friend with Peter when our sons played hockey on their high school team. Once when we were sitting around the rink waiting for a game to start, he mentioned that he had read Obamacare page per page twice. I said that I don't know if that made him the smartest man I knew or the stupidest....he laughed and we were friends from that moment on.

His family is in our family's thoughts and prayers.
