

Philip H. Nelson

January 22, 2022

Philip H. Nelson, of Lindenhurst, passed away peacefully with family members by his side on Saturday, January 22, 2022.

He was the last of five Nelson siblings born to Swedish immigrants to expire this past year. He is predeceased by his beloved wife Jane, and leaves behind his son Ken Nelson; daughter, Nancy (Alan) Bland, and grandsons Jacob and Nelson Bland.

Phil was a mason contractor in the family business G.O. Nelson & Sons and became a 50-year member of the Masonry Institute, Local 21. Among his many outside talents he loved to sing, was a member of the Moody traveling Choir Chorale, was a first-rate Great Lakes Sailor with his family for decades on his sailboat, the Narnia, loved skiing, and remained a longtime volunteer and Christian mentor to many.

His family was his treasure. A tapestry above his doorway read 'Home is where we all live for one another, and we all live for God.' He will be greatly missed.

Private funeral services due to the pandemic will be on Saturday, February 12, 2022 at Burnett-Dane Funeral Home in Libertyville. For those that wish to view services, a video will be available to view on funeral home website the following week.. For info: 847-366-7155 or share a memory at www.burnettdana.com.

“ Thank you all for the thoughts, prayers, and comfort. It means a lot to us, he is dearly missed.

We make a video of the memorial service to share, getting that up is taking a minute, so please check back soon.

Much love,

Nelson B. (Phil's grandson)

“ Phil was a great person. I volunteered with Phil at Covenant Harbor Bible Camp in Lake Geneva. He was a tireless worker and a devout Christian . I will miss his firm handshake and his wonderful spirit. May he now enjoy being with Jane and the rest of the Christian family in God's home. Peace to his memory.
