“ *Randy was a favorite cousin of mine - - being just two months older. It was always a joy to visit him with his family in Highland Park when I was younger. Then when we had family reunions in Viroqua, I always looked forward to playing with him when we were younger and just sharing times as we were older. We talked by telephone several times throughout the years. Most recently he shared with me about Anne and that his health was failing. His birthday would have been next week and we always talked especially on that day. I will miss my phone call with him on November 5. God's blessings be with your family during this difficult time.
