“ Rich - A hard shell made you a challenging guy to get to know at first. However. I will be forever grateful that I was allowed to earn your friendship & get to know the truly funny, goofy & genuinely good guy you were. Our old Sunday fundays of fine dining & cocktails were epic. I will never hear 80's pop music without hearing you sing along. I will never watch a Bears game without hearing you shout "COME ON". PS - the Bears can use all the help they can get. Love you forever - Rest in Peace. Cheers!

“ Our family is very sad today. However we are very happy to have met Rich. A one of a kind guy. So many tailgates, hawks games, steam engine train trip to Beloit, and of course excellent cocktails at Tavern-Boulevardier, Harlem and Tom’s Negroni to mention a few
We are
Going to miss him much. Go Bears and Godspeed.
