“ My most recent memory of my Uncle Rick was from May 14, 2011. My wedding day and also the wedding anniversary of Rick's parents, my grandparents, Clark and Laretta Palmer. If it wasn't for Uncle Rick, we wouldn't have a wedding video. He was gracious enough to film the day for us. From that video my husband and I can listen to his commentary and remember him fondly from that day. I can hear him now poking fun at my dad and asking me whether I am ready for the ceremony in a joking way. I can only hope that he has now found some peace after his horrible battle with ALS. My condolences to all his friends and family. Especially to those who knew him best... Aunt Judy, Aunt Linda, my mom Lois, Aunt Laurie, and all my cousins.

“ Dear Palmer family,I just found out about Rick's passing today(Nov. 29). We went to LHS together and he often gave me a ride home. He was always so sweet. The last time I saw him was at the Central School reunion at Mickey Finn's in Libertyville a few years ago.My prayers are with all of you. He was much too young to leave this world. Sincerely,Phyllis DeRam Rodriguez
