“ When my father joined KTC in 1959 Dick showed him the lot which my father and I built our cottage on. He was a gentleman, and I am sure will be deeply missed by family and friends.

“ We were very sorry to recently learn of Dick's passing. My husband and I loved both Dick & Betty and enjoyed watching them together as they took their daily strolls around the neighborhood. We miss that and having them at our neighborhood get togethers as they were always so interesting to talk to. Both were so very kind. They will live in our memory, forever. Joan & Allan
