

Robbie J Diaz

August 18, 1986 - November 6, 2023

Robert (Robbie) J. Diaz passed away suddenly on November 6, 2023. He was born on August 18, 1986, to Christine Adams and Richard Diaz.

Robbie had a fearless spirit and was willing to take risks to pursue life's opportunities. While concern and worry may have accompanied him on some of these journeys, we cannot deny the passion and courage that fueled his pursuit of life's adventures. Robbie confronted challenges head-on with an unwavering determination to live life to its fullest.

Robbie was known for his love and commitment to his many friends and his family. He was not just an adventurer; he was also a protector, always looking out for the well-being of his loved ones. He had a deep affection for animals, especially his beloved dog, Skittles.

Robbie graduated from Vernon Hills High School and found his calling as a paralegal at his family's law firm.

He is survived by his parents, his brothers Richard (Rickie) S. Diaz, and Joseph (Joey) D. Sutherland, his grandfather, Robert J. Adams Jr., his grandmothers Joyce Ann Magnuson, and Marta Jensen, and a very large extended family including a great nephew, many aunts, uncles, and cousins, plus a great many friends.

“ I just found out Robbie is no longer with us. I met Rob on Facebook on a trading platform. He was a good penny stock trader and we hit it off right from the start. He was a passionate caring guy and he loved his brother very much. We would talk on the phone for hours. Rob took his health seriously and his workouts. He would do 30,000 steps to 40,000 steps a day and i would be so blown away on how much time and effort he put into it. I remember talking to him in October about trading and he was planning on starting to trade next year. Man, i was so excited for him because he was a great trader in penny stocks. I'll miss you a lot bud. You forever put a fire in me and now i do trading as my main income. Forever in our hearts my friend!

“ I offer my sincerest sympathy and condolences at the time of this terrible and tragic loss.

I am proud to have called Robbie my friend and grateful to have shared time and companionship with him. I will always remember Robbie as he was in life...

Robbie was helpful and kind. He had a deep soul and a big heart. He was dedicated to his friends and family, whom he loved dearly.

Robbie was fearless and brave and fiercely loyal. One had only to be around him for a brief time to know Robbie would unwaveringly stand next to you and fight by your side no matter what the circumstances you faced or who the adversary was.

Robbie was his own unique person with an unquenchable force of will and tenacity of spirit. He listened to the sound of his own music and danced to the beat of his own rhythms and drums. Robbie experienced all the colors and hues of life.

Robbie's memory will always be a light to shine the way. I will never forget Robbie. He is truly loved and missed.

Love, Chris Pierce

“ I've known Robbie all of his life, so this hits hard. But I have a lot of great memories. Despite our age differences, we were buddies the whole time. When he was younger I would take him to the batting cages at the Bunny Hutch, and then we would play a round of miniature golf (he cheated). As we both got older we enjoyed many sporting events together, and I will always remember being at his house for Fourth of July parties. Even though at some point I wanted to leave because I lived many miles away, he would convince me to stay for the fireworks that he had purchased, and I was glad I did as his enthusiasm at watching the fireworks explode made me laugh. He could often convince me to go in with him on his infamous five-legged parley sports bets. We even won a couple of them. Knowing Robbie has brought much joy to my life, and I will miss that. My condolences to us all. Brian Pedersen

“This hits too close to home. Robbie and I went to highshool together. I dated him for a short time but we remained friends. I remember taking the bus home with him and just endless talks in his room. He was such a wonderful person, a wonderful listener and a wonder friend. I am so saddened by this.

“ Robbie and I were neighbors for the past eight years, we shared a very special bond. Robbie had a infectious smile and a big heart for all he loved, and will be sorely missed. My favorite memory of him, he’d come over call my name through the window, ask me if I had dinner and then grill awesome food! He’d send a plate over that would feed me for a week. Such a Awesome family I’ve been truly Blessed. My heart breaks for the whole family.

“ I will always remember one of the first times Robbie. He invited me out to meet some friends. Robbie was so welcoming and made sure everyone was well acquainted and taken care of. And that’s how I’ll always remember Robbie. Someone who was selfless, and genuinely cared about you. Our friendship together, though short-lived, has left a forever impact on my life. Rest in paradise Robbie.
