“ PEGGY and Family

It was a fortunate time when woody geobbert closed his farm and garden shop and retired.

The following season Bob went searching for a new hangout. I was so glad when he and Peggy found us. His frequent visits with his wonderful (offcolor) humor. We often would turn our heads and look around the store as Bob would begin his jokes. A note to Bobs family, he was not able to order his 100 celebrity tomatoes. WHO WANTS TO BE A FARMER? Ha Ha!

Thanks for Sharing Bob with us!!!

“ Robert was such a nice man and extremely generous. Told some pretty darn good jokes too. I'll miss that. He did a lot for my family and that will never be forgotten. Rest in Peace! You'll be missed!

“ Peggy,

I'm so sorry I didn't know about Bob's death in time to come to the service. You and yours are in my prayers.

Yesterday or the day before your name came into my mind and I felt I should phone you.

When will I learn to pay attention to my intuition.

Again, you are in my prayers.
