“ To Bob's sweet family,

I am so sorry to hear about Bob's passing. I first met Bob when I moved back to Chicago and stayed with my sister Barb McClure. Bob helped me find and purchase my first home, and was always the kindest, friendliest, and most honorable man. He was truly a lovely human being who blessed anyone who was lucky enough to cross his path. My thoughts and prayers go out to you at this time.

*Warmest regards,
Betsi Negri*

“ I am proud to say that I have known Bob Ott for over 25 years through my opportunities to always work at the offices that Bob managed. His incredible memory recall for names, details and information was astounding. And, his keen sense of humor will greatly be missed. I am proud to say that Bob was my friend.
