“ Bob was the neighborhood daredevil around each Christmas in that he would scale up his 100 foot pine tree in the front yard and decorate it with gigantic ornaments. A friend in deed and ready to help whenever and wherever needed. A gentle man with a big hear and wonderful smile. We all love Bob.

“ "Bob immediately came across the street to help my daughter and I put up a Halloween decoration shortly after we moved to the neighborhood. He always took an interest when it was Homecoming and Prom and we were taking pictures outside. We would always chat on the street and he would share his wisdom. A sweet, caring, friendly and special person that I am sure touched many lives. Thank you for touching ours!
