“ Marilyn, Lisa, Suzanne, Robert,
I'm so sorry for your loss. Lil Jab was a great man. The best memories for me were his birthday with Big Jab when all of us were together. I remember when we used to bowl at The Bowlarium in North Chicago and he used to call me Lil Jabber.
Uncle Jabbo rest in peace, you will be truly missed.

“ Marilyn,
Just wanted you to know how sad Diane and I were to hear about Jabo's death. He was an amazing guy, funny as heck, and I will always remember him for his love of fishing and the sport that it was. His contributions to the Club will be sorely missed. No one will ever keep the garden like Jab. It was his arts and crafts time with God's goodness. He's smiling down on us all. Love to you and the family.
