“ *Bobby (aka: The Mayor)
Our 2 kids grew up with the Wolff boys. They would all go back and fourth to our house and to there house. He would make us cry with the things he would say and do and his laugh that laugh it was the best. And we knew when they were all up to no good Bobby would rub his hands together with his dirty laugh. We miss you so much and love you. Rest in peace Mayor you will be greatly missed.
Love,
Dan, Christy, Chris, Jaime (Hamilton) Venturi and Lou Venturi*

“ *I knew Bobby through my husband at Kloss Distributing. Always a fun and kind person. I guess the one thing that really stands out is that my Dad almost died about 7 years ago and Bobby took the time to go see him in the hospital when he was healing. They used to talk about the Chicago Blackhawks/hockey. That meant a lot to me to see someone take the time to do that.
To the family, my heart goes out to you all during this very difficult time. May he rest in peace.*

“ I've been staring at this memory box for 10 mins not knowing what to say worthy enough for you. You shined such a light in my world. Even when I was mad at you, you could stop me in my tracks and make me laugh. Everyone loves you so much. I lost my best friend. You were the most beautiful man I've laid eyes on. I am so blessed you came into my life. I love you so much, Bobby. My deepest condolences to Bob, Mischelle, Danny, and Adam. He loved his family and would take a bullet for them. Behave up there Bobby! Love always, "sweet Mo Mo".

“ Dear Wolff Family - Sending you love, light and strength. I know Bobby's spirit will live on in every person that was lucky enough to know him. I also know that's a HUGE amount of people, more than I can even wrap my head around. He was a friend to so many and he will be sorely missed.

I wanted to share this poem with you, I read it at my Mom's service and it still brings me a great deal of comfort. All my love, Chrissy Mortimer slipped away into the next room. Nothing has happened. Everything remains exactly as it was. I am I, and you are you, and the old life that we lived so fondly together is untouched, unchanged. Whenever we were to walk together, that we are still. Call me by the old familiar name. Speak of me in the easy way which you always used. Put no difference into your tone. Wear no forced air of solemnity or sadness. Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes that we enjoyed together. Play, walk, think of me, pray for me. Let my name be over the household word that it always was. Let it be spoken without an effort, without the ghost of a shadow upon it. Life means all that it ever meant. It is the same as it ever was. There is absolute and unshakable continuity. What is this death but a negligible accident? Why should I be sad? I am not sad because I am out of sight? I am not writing for you, for an interval, somewhere over seas, but round the corner. All is well.

“ Some of my favorite memories are of childhood in Lake Bluff - and Bobby is part of so many of them. I know a lot of Lake Bluffers from the old days are thinking about him and the entire Wolf family. So terribly sorry to hear of his passing.

“ May God Bless you and your family brother. You are the ultimate teammate. It was your character I will miss and it was evident as young football teammates. You would never leave a teammate behind and sacrifice your body for theirs.

“ *Bobby,
I will always remember 4 little heads whispering and laughing in the back of my car as you all planned another "adventure". My daughter included. Our street needed to be called "Wolff Avenue" because your family was the hub of all the activity and helpfulness. You always had such a big smile on your face even when Adam threw that gigantic teddy bear at you, often. My sincere condolences to Bob, Adam, Danny and everyone in the family. Warmest hugs to you all at this time. Love always, Pat K.*
