“ Dear Alison, you won't likely remember me. I was friends with you and your beautiful mom back when you were just starting kindergarten, when you lived next to Ravinia and we all attended Christ Church LF. So long ago. I never would have guessed your mom would branch out into such a big family. So grateful to the Lord that Robin found such happiness. A kind, intelligent, lovely woman. I'm sure you are too. So sorry for her passing. I've lived all over the country since that time; I'm in Des Moines now. Had a wonderful marriage too, but only 26 years and then he was called to duty at Christ's throne. Take care, and many blessings to you all. Love, Desiree Steerup Effner

What a lady! A painter with a flair for glitter and personality! Her enthusiasm was contagious! Her garden was her haven and her love of Jesus shared with us all. Her bible study group will never forget her, And neither will I. Love you Robin, My sister for eternity 🙏 Marian
