“ I didn't know that my visit to him on Oct. 11 was the last time I'd see him alive but I'm glad I saw him that day in Grayslake. He looked very much at ease in his home recovery bed surrounded by myriads of blossoming orchids that must have reminded him of long gone days. I greeted him and gave him a hug, then we reminisce of our past. Then I casually mentioned that I really valued his loyalty to our friendship because of the many favors that he afforded me when we were very much involved with the Cities of 7 Lakes organization. He nodded to me on that. That instance will long be remembered by me. Farewell Pareng Rollie from Pareng Romy.

As tears flow from our eyes with hearts heavy with the weight of losing you, we will also celebrate your life because you have taught us the true meaning of living. You were and still are an inspiration to all, with a heart that radiated love and warmth through all our lives. You will be truly missed and forever remembered. You have left a void that no one can fill. They are not many in the world like you and today the earth mourns the loss of an angel. Rest In Peace our dearest.
