

Ronald J. Grundberg

May 20, 1933 - July 4, 2020

Ronald J. Grundberg, 87, passed peacefully on Saturday, July 4, 2020 in Kenosha, WI. He was born May 20, 1933 in Chicago, IL and had been a longtime resident of Libertyville, IL.

Ron loved people and connected with everyone he met almost instantly and will be remembered as a great conversationalist. He served The Church of Jesus Christ Latter Day Saints in many capacities over the years and had many great experiences helping people come unto Christ, he even served as an early morning seminary teacher for 3 years. He founded a successful business which employed most of his kids at one time or another, was a brass band fanatic, an accomplished euphonium soloist, and served as president of Windjammers Unlimited, an organization dedicated to the preservation of circus music for several years. He loved playing O Holy Night each Christmas and one of his favorite marches was John Phillips Sousa's Stars and Stripes Forever, how fitting he should pass on the 4th of July!

He is survived by a daughter, Jennifer (Chris); 6 sons, Glenn, Paul (Suzanne), Pete (Aimee), Steven (Jenny), Phillip (Jessica) and Andy Grundberg; 16 grandchildren; sister, Joanne Weber and brother, Arthur (Marianne) Grundberg. “ Ron was a most treasured friend from Lake Forest College and for many years after. I remember how tenacious he was as an insurance man right out of college when he got hold of me in Dubuque, IA, where I was playing minor league ball with a White Sox affiliate and sold me a $10,000 life policy in the our press box over the phone. Ron was such a great guy and friend. His brother Art was my roommate my freshman year at LFC living with Coach Wally Lemm and family. He is a wonderful man and lives in Florida. I will miss our communications via phone and email as he was such an accomplished man in many ways and wonderful musician. RIP Ron.. Prayers being said.

“ *Dear Loved Ones,
I heard from your cousin Amy that your Father has made his exit from life on earth. I ask God and all the angels to be with you and comfort you all. It is only goodbye to him for now. He is not 'gone,' we just can't see him or call him on the phone. I think of you all and of the fun we've had through the years. Even though I haven't seen you lately you are not forgotten.*

With Love from,
