“ To the Baker Children,

My prayers and sympathy are with you all. I remember your mom as always being a willing servant at church and helpful to me when I directed the children's choirs there. I also remember you all from your childhood days at Copeland School!

Blessings to each of you.

“ Sandy and Susan and all the family,

I was so sorry to hear about your mom and so sad I never made it over to the house for a visit. Please know that you are in my thoughts. You are blessed to have had her in your lives for so long.

Love and hugs

“ From the first Sunday at 1st Pres., sometime in 1977 of 1978, Ruth has been a friend. It is sad that she has left all of us but I rejoice with everyone that she is now at her eternal home.

Ruth has been a part of so much in our church and touched so many. She is a Stephen Minister, elder, deacon, part of the quilting group and her Circle. She has been a Sunday School teacher, part of Women's Ministries and part of so many lives, part of our contemporary lit. discussion, always providing great insight and memories. Ruth is a gracious hostess, a great cook, a wonderful and kind friend, wife of the late Jackson who adored her, an excellent seamstress, mother of several children. We wanted to hold on to her in this life, but realize that we don't want her suffering and in pain. She has brought joy to many occasions over the years.
