“ Bob, I am so sorry to learn of the sudden loss of your beloved wife. While I never had the pleasure of meeting her, I am certain she was special and helped to make you the man you are. Be assured of my prayers for Sandra and for all of you who hold her dear and are left to carry on.

*Peace and all good,

“ I have worked with Bob for many years and more importantly consider him a true friend for life. Each time I met Sandy, she was always aglow with a smile with a keen happiness and love for life. Through them both, I could always tell how family and loved ones equalled the moon and stars to this close knit family. While our words will fall infinitely short of describing our deepest sympathy, we wish you the Lords peace, calm and embrace during this time. No anguish can ever dim the light of such a wonderful mother, wife, sister and anchor of such a special family.

*With all our love and prayers,
Tony O and Tracy*

“ I worked with Sandy in the Social Science division at the College of Lake County for many years. After retiring from Abbott, she reinvented herself and was responsible to our evening faculty and students. She was so competent and always went beyond expectations. We shared many moments with humor and many family-related stories. As I write this, I am smiling thinking about her. She sparkled and lifted many of us. Please know that I will pray for your family during this very difficult time. She loved all of you very much.
