“ I remember sitting behind Sandy in choir. She was a beautiful and loving woman. I will treasure all the holiday circle potluck at the Palmer home. Sandy made Christmas ornaments for everyone and I still have them and hang them on our Christmas tree every year. Love and prayers to Don and the whole family.

so many Sandy memories. her great garden, her making a Baptismal outfit for a Humboldt Park family, a visit to our place in Florida and how she loved the beach, so much that she burned the tops of her feet badly. all of the t-shirts she made into quilts for her grands, our great trip from Switzerland to Amsterdam and her many stops for ice cream as we stopped by any ice cream vendors loved. Rhine River cruise, I loved how she loved Iowa, like I love my home area. and many more...Rest in Peace Sandy
