

Sarah Ann O'Brien

February 17, 2026

Sarah Ann O'Brien (nee Pankonin) of Libertyville passed into the presence of her Lord Jesus on February 17, 2026, surrounded by loved ones. She was born in 1929 and raised with her three brothers on a farm in Wauconda, Illinois, loving the wonders and seasons of nature. She attended Texas State College for Women and graduated from University of Washington, after which she served as a 1st Lieutenant in the US Army at Walter Reed Army Hospital, where she met her husband Raymond O'Brien (1929-2015). They settled in Libertyville, raising together a family of eight children and innumerable animals of almost every variety.

She was active in the Libertyville Evangelical Free Church (CrossLife) as a member and leader from 1963 to the present day and served on the Libertyville High School District 128 School Board for many years. She was likewise a Board member with Lydia Children's Home in Chicago, a volunteer for Habitat for Humanity of Lake County, and a longtime supporter and advisor for Families in Training (FIT Moms) in Waukegan. Sarah's volunteer work reflected her deep commitment to serving others, both locally and abroad. She devoted herself to organizations such as M.O.P.S. (Mothers of Preschoolers) and PADS (Public Action to Deliver Shelter), and she traveled twice to Honduras on mission trips with Medical Ministry International. Sarah also had a gift for making things beautiful, expressed through her love of gardening and her long-standing involvement with the Libertyville Garden Club. In all she did, Sarah's life and generous heart for service were guided by her enduring faith.

She was preceded in death by her parents Herman and Avis (Hayford) Pankonin, her brothers Wayne, Warren, and Harvey Pankonin, her husband Raymond, and her eldest daughter Catherine (“Kate”) O’Brien. She is survived by her children Eileen (Grant) Mitchell, Ceil (Steve) Folz, Matthew (Donna) O’Brien, Sarah (Herman) Klaus, Christopher (Heather) O’Brien, Maggie (Mark) Dryden, and Thomas (Lira) O’Brien-Dominguez, along with eleven grandchildren and fifteen great-grandchildren.

Services will be held at the CrossLife Evangelical Free Church, 431 W Austin Ave, Libertyville, on Tuesday, February 24, 2026 with visitation beginning at 10:00 and funeral service at 12:00. Interment will follow at Lakeside Cemetery. Arrangements by Burnett-Dane Funeral Home in Libertyville. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the FIT Moms program. “ Dear Sarah,

Your wisdom, kindness, and steadfast faith were precious gifts in my life. We shared so much — sewing, gardening, and above all, a love for Scripture. Our Bible studies, whether at work, in your home, or at church, were sacred moments to me. Sitting beside you and learning of Christ was a true blessing.

I smile thinking of the dinner recipes you tried to teach me — the pea soup was a disaster... haha

Yet even in grief, there is gratitude. I pray to serve Christ with even a portion of the devotion you embodied — and perhaps, one day, to reflect the grace of your wisdom you showed so effortlessly.....

Thank you for everything.

With love, always. - Heather O'Brien. p.s. "You're Forgiven" wink wink

“ What a Sarah was. Always a smile, a helping hand. Through the years we enjoyed spending time with her and often going out to dinner with Sarah and Ray. A fun evening was had by all. So many good memories enjoyed with spending time with Sarah. Deepest Sympathy the family!

“ Mom, I never said goodbye! I was sure I'd see you at least once more, and that day was just a few before you left. And I'd cut your hair and we'd plan your 97th birthday party. But I think you knew the last time would be the last time. You didn't know how we all fought the tears every time we left your presence this last year, unsure of what the coming days would bring. But now those days are here. No more birthday party plans. No more talks about your health condition. No more days when we talk on the phone about when you think Jesus will return. I miss you, mom. But I can't wish you back, knowing that you are in the presence of the One you lived for, the one you served, the one who carried you through all your life's dreams and nightmares. You're praising God with the angels and saints, and I'm jealous. But we will be together again one day, as sisters of our King, Jesus. Bye for now, Mom.

“ I woke up early to a new emptiness
My first day without you
Pain so fresh a sharp throbbing sense
That my whole world has come unglued.
1929 such a long long time your lessons learned hard and true
take just what you need help those that you see
who are needy
just like you.
And never forget that we're just passing through
Again and again
You told me that truth
So here is to you
On your first day in heaven
Love you forever
Chris

“ To my beautiful mom; you will never be forgotten. Your legacy will live on in your children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren, and in every life you touched with your endless sacrifices for others in the name of Jesus Christ. You left big shoes to fill, but my promise is that we will try our best to follow your example of living a service driven life, striving to be the hands and feet of Jesus to a world that needs Him.
