Your consolation and concern towards me during the loss of my wife (you used to call her as Akka) is still in memory... You are such a nice person... It's a great shock to hear... It's a great loss for me. Let your soul rest in peace da Thambi!

“ I met Sarathy during my university years and I remember him like a giant teddy bear sitting in a corner ready to give advice to anyone without judgement (also keeping us younger ones out of trouble). Thank you for opening your house for my friends and I to get to know your beliefs, culture and food in a safe way. So thankful. My thoughts and prayers are with your loved ones near and far.

“ Anna,
Gone too soon, but never forgotten. Your kindness, your laughter, and your bubbly, fun-loving nature left a lasting impression on everyone lucky enough to know you. I will always remember the warmth you brought into every room and the joy you so freely shared. You made the world brighter, and you will be deeply missed.

“ My deepest condolences to the family. Sarathy (or Anna, like we all used to call him with love) was such a sweet and kind person to everyone in Fredericton. Always helpful, and a great mentor. I cherish all the amazing memories I shared with him during my time at UNB. My thoughts and prayers are with the family 🙏

“ It is with heavy hearts and profound sorrow that I bid farewell to someone who brought light, kindness, and integrity into the lives of all who knew him. Sarathy was not just a good person — he was a rare soul, full of compassion, warmth, and quiet strength.

His sudden departure has left a void that words cannot fill. In every smile he shared, in every hand he extended to help, in every moment of quiet support — he left a legacy of love and goodness. Whether it was family, friends, colleagues, or even strangers, Sarathy touched lives in ways that will never be forgotten.

We will remember him for the joy he brought, the wisdom he shared, and the deep sense of humanity he carried in his heart. Though he is no longer with us in body, his spirit lives on in our memories, our stories, and in the values, he taught us by example.

Rest in peace, dear Sarathy. You were truly one of the best among us, and you will be missed more than words can say.

“ From the schoolyard to college corridors, we grew up side by side — sharing dreams, laughter, secrets, and even silence. We were inseparable then, and though life has taken you from this world, nothing can take you from my heart.

You were more than a friend — you were family.
I'll carry our memories with me always, and miss you in every moment.
Rest well, my forever friend.
