“ I am so sorry of hearing about the passing of my cousin Shane. I remember getting together for Halloween and during Christmas break when we were younger. Shane was fearless, never afraid to take chances and overall a great guy! I still can hear his contagious laugh in my head! I love you Shane! I still cannot believe you are gone. Please say a special hello to Uncle Pat, Brian and my Mom. Rest In Peace Cuz💙

“ I remember how sometimes he would make me laugh out loud! He was walking down some concrete steps to a lower patio at a friends house. There was a small garter snake laying out on the warm step and when Shane saw it he freaked. He started yelling “a snake, a snake” and he was trying to avoid it by pumping his knees as high as possible running down the steps with his arms flailing out in front of him. He was screaming like a little girl. Laughed so hard thought I would cry! What a nut! Kathy Chrislip

*Shane was a true Irishman! He was funny, unpredictable, and a great worker
He always helped me out in our home even though he was so busy
I'm sorry he's gone he gave so much to so many, wishing him peace and Irish blessings 🍀🍀🍀*
