“ When I first met Sharon I was drawn to her fun loving, warm exuberance. It was not long before I realized that she was indeed an old soul with much wisdom and strength. She became a trusted confidante and a teacher to me. When I needed to hear those difficult things a friend can only tell a friend, she always tempered her words with love and caring. Sharon adored Ken. He was her rock, her strength, her soul mate. Their love made me smile. it still does. Sharon left her hand print on my heart and I am grateful to have known her. Her beautiful spirit now flies free.

Her wonderful smile and conversations will truly be missed. God's plan for taking such a beautiful person at such a tender age will never be fully understood. We must continue to hold onto our faith to get us through.

“ I had the joy of working with Sharon for almost six years. Her sense of humor and her joy for life was contagious. Thank you for teaching me not to always take things so seriously. I will miss our talks on the Blackhawks, our funny songs on our Ipods, and the way you would say "Seriously?"

Rest in peace Sharon. I will miss you!

“ My deepest condolences to Ken, his family and the Killackeys. I've known Bob and Helene for over 45 years and attended both Brent's and Sharon's wedding. One of my fond memories of Sharon is when the Killackeys visited us in Cleveland. Bob, Sharon, my son John and me went cycling in the Metro Parks, nearby. We all wore helmets except for Sharon who didn't "want to mess up her hair."

She was a lovely, happy person and she will be sorely missed.
