“ Sean & Erin sorry to hear about your dear mother passing so early, but I'm sure Tom is overjoyed with the reunion. She sounds like such a great mom, well loved and respected. She will be remembered by those in her life and remain connected through the hearts of her extended family. Your loss will feel like such a burden at first, however over time her love will prevail and guide you. Your families are in our thoughts and prayers as you move through this time of grief.

“ Losing Sharon Rose (always loved her name) was a big loss to many. She was kind and caring, but more than that, she was fun. She had a great, dry sense of humor and, just for the record, she was a gourmet cook to say nothing of her other creative talents. She will be missed by many including her children, grandchildren, as well as Marie and Mike. She really loved you kids (loved to brag about you). In addition to all of this, she was a wonderful caregiver to the love of her life, Tom. She deserved the best and if there is nothing else to be happy about, I am glad her suffering is over. No doubt Uncle Bernie, Aunt Eileen and Tom were waiting for her in heaven. Rest in peace dear cuz ! It was wonderful having you in my life.

“ Mrs Ivers was the best! Always so supportive, tolerant, cool headed, personable and smiling 😊 She was a big part of my high school years and beyond. We always had fun and the Ivers household!! Her and Mr Ivers always made time at our swimming/diving meets to stop me and tell me “good job kiddo”! You will be missed dearly...may you RIP and always send signs of hope to those you love most ❤️🙏❤️ “ Deepest sympathies to the entire Ivers, Curley, and LaBarge families.

Sharon was a lovely woman, warm, welcoming, and gracious to all she met. I remember one Ivers reunion where she opened up her home to the SO many Ivers family uncles, aunts, cousins, nieces, nephews, and assorted others, while maintaining her cool. What a trooper.

RIP dear Sharon. Thanks for the memories.

Sean,Erin and Family,.... Your mom and I became friends in 1957...We sure knew how to have fun...A fun memory...Tom and Sharon were in Mexico... They decided to go for a walk on the beach after dinner...Got a little tired so Tom says to Sharon lets go sit on that big rock over there...Uh Tide comes in and knocks both over...She told me all they could do is lay there in the sand and laugh their butts off.... Sadness and laughs all part of life...Try to remember all the fun those two had in life...Good bye to my favorite red head...love you always Diane and Bill Wagner
