

Sin Hang Kwok

July 15, 1923 - December 11, 2024

Sin Hang Kwok Pang, 101, went to be with the Lord on Wednesday, December 11, 2024. She was born on July 15, 1923, in Hong Kong to Fook Chuen Kwok and Kam Yau Leung.

In her teens, Sin and her family fled to China during World War II after the Japanese invasion of Hong Kong. While in Guilin, she met her future husband, Yiu Pang. The couple returned to Hong Kong and married in 1945. While Yiu worked as a nautical engineer, Sin devoted herself to raising their only child, Susan, while also caring for her brother's daughter and her mother.

After Susan married in 1971, Sin embraced her role as a grandmother, delighting in cooking for her grandchildren and taking them on adventures to learn and explore. She loved cooking, knitting, sewing, and selflessly helping others whenever needed. Following Yiu's passing in 2003, Sin moved to the United States to live with her daughter and cherished the time spent with her six great-grandchildren. Her greatest joy was gathering her family for a home-cooked meal.

Sin came to know the Lord during a trip to Chicago in 1999 and was baptized alongside Yiu at Chinese Christian Union Church-North in Highland Park. She was also a dedicated member of the Fook Lok Fellowship.

Sin was preceded in death by her beloved husband of 58 years, Yiu Pang (2003); and her grandson, Theodore Leung (2018). She is survived by her daughter Susan (Stephen) Leung; granddaughter Tricia (David) Liu; granddaughter-in-law Susan Leung; and six great-grandchildren: Abigail Leung, Justin Leung, Caitlyn Liu, Emma Leung, Erin Liu, and Christine Liu.

A visitation will begin at 9:00 a.m., followed by a service at 11:00 a.m., on Saturday, December 21, 2024, at Burnett-Dane Funeral Home (120 W. Park Ave.) in Libertyville. For info: 847-362-3009 or share a memory at www.burnett-dane.com.

Sin's memory will forever live on in the hearts of those who loved her.
