Words cannot describe our emotions associated with the unexpected passing of our loved and respected mother and wife. She was a very ambitious person, who kept her home impeccably neat and organized. She loved spending time planting and gardening which made her home and garden full of beautiful flowers and plants. She was a simple and considerate person. She was always able to find ways to help people who were in unpredictable and difficult situation. She will remain in our memories forever.

She is survived by her husband, Kazimir Milidovich; son, Stanislav (Jurate) Milidovich and 2 grandchildren, Thomas & Milana.
