“ Brad, there aren't any words to express the sorrow we share with you and your family! We know that Sue fought a tough battle and she is at peace now. From the first time we met Sue at Billie's house we knew she was special and you were blessed with a great lady by your side. You know that physically we are not there but we are thinking of you, all the family & friends and our prayers go out to all, especially Sue! She is looking down smiling right now.Carol & Chuck

“ My deepest sympathies to all of the family on your loss of a very special person who will always be remembered. I met Sue through Barb, and remember driving Sue, Sue and Barb to and from the airport when they went on a cruise. The excitement generated by Sue before the cruise, and the joy of going on that trip was contagious. She will be missed by everyone who had the honor of meeting her.

“ Sue your smile will be missed but the sparkle in your eye will never be forgotten. Our intimate conversation and bond will never be broken. Your loving spirit and friendship have imprinted my heart forever. We will meet in our "Paris"! My dearly beloved friend you fought a most courageous battle. I never got to tell you that you are my hero! May you dance in the peace and love of God! Love You, Mary Ann
