“ I have two unforgettable anecdotes about Terry.

First, I was sitting next to Terry at a CCHS football game and Joe, Terry's son, was the quarterback. At a down, Joe was sacked. Terry would not look but asked me, "M. Recchia, did he get up?" I promptly answered, "Yes, he is a tough guy." With that she looked up and thanked the Lord.

Second, at Street Scenes Terry was in charge of the dining room staff and on a Saturday evening she walked up to me before the doors opened and said: "M. Recchia, cars are lined up in both directions on 176. They are all coming for your pizza." I responded that they were coming for the shows and she whispered in my ear, "No, they are coming for the food."

*My sincere condolences to the entire family.

“ We were so sorry to hear of the passing of this sweet lady. Technically she wasn't our real aunt, but growing up we Juncer children always thought of her and her dear husband as Aunt Terri and Uncle Joe. Her sweet smile and loving hugs will be missed. Our prayers and sympathy to you all.

“ I have fond memories of the Pudlo family. I worked with Terry at the savings and loans. We had the best times. She was the best cook and shared some of her recipe with me. RIP
