“ Tomm, I will always remember your smile that always made my day. A smile that never ended and a chuckle that could make anyone laugh. Thanks for all the "handyman" jobs you did at my house, and for the lunches we shared in my kitchen reminising all the years at LZ. I'll miss you friend!!

“ Too many memories! My biggest memory is the fact that He was always able to make me laugh! He was incredibly cheap and always took an Inappropriate amount of napkins from fast food restaurants and stuffed them in his van. He always stated "just in case" haha I always thought that was funny! Or the fact that he purchased snacks that were clearly expired but didn't care and ate them anyways because they were cheap! Haha! The man had an iron stomach And Impressive will power! I always came over to Mike's house growing up and would always greet Tom and strike a conversation because I knew it would be entertaining and I would have a smile and most likely be laughing with him in 30 seconds! He was great man with a giant heart!
