“ Tommy and I are cousins, friends Huskers, brothers and lifelong cohorts. We are both about the same age and maybe that's why I always felt so close to Tom even when we lived in different states. Tom was one of the most well read people you would ever run into. I'm sure he would impart this knowledge while having a few at the local pub, many times while I was with him. Tommy loved his family always giving us updates in Omaha on his grandkids, Jean and Lenny. I will miss him dearly. Donny

“ The first time I met Tom I was with my future husband, Tom's cousin Don. We went to visit Tom and Jean in Libertyville many many years ago. I remember Tom was such a nice guy and decided to show me the sights in Chicago. I will always remember him telling me" don't walk around looking up at the buildings cause you'll look like a tourist" and then he proceeded to fall off the curb. We had such fun I think about that night all the time. Tom and Jean took me into the family even way before I knew I would be in the family. Tom and Jean are part of our family and Tommy was truly one of the good guys. I will miss him. Marianne
