“ Knew Tim my entire life, and we ended up going to Western together. Nothing but great and funny memories to a guy who was BIGGER THAN LIFE. He always made me laugh, and found humor in almost any situation, (usually about me), I have a thousand stories about him, which are all good. You will be missed my friend!

“ We are all gonna miss Tim a lot. He left us quickly, and too early, but with a ton of great memories. His very frank commentary, and sometimes irreverent sense of humor always had you anxious to hear what he had to say, yet unsure of what he might say next. His love and commitment to his family, his friends, youth and Chicago sports was apparent in virtually every thing he did. I sure learned a lot and enjoyed coaching J Cats with Tim. Coaching moments were naturally apparent to him, and he'd be sure to make the best of them. His was a unique and special presence that will leave a void for all of us. God rest his soul. “ We are very saddened about Tim’s passing and our hearts are breaking for you, Nancy and Mike, Greg and Casey. Tim was such a joy to be around. We spent so much time with him at Libertyville sports events. Tim had a great wit about him and we could always count on a humorous and candid observation concerning sports. He will certainly be missed. We will be praying for your whole family during this difficult time.
