“ Somehow I imagine Todd must now be near the gates of heaven belting out Broadway show tunes on the piano just like he did at your front door when we all were growing up on Ames Street. My dad really will miss his neighbor/shoveling buddy as well. We all are sad and thinking of you at this difficult time.

Peace,

Lisa (Kincaid) Daniels and Family

“ Dear Brad, Reed, and Janey Sue,
My heart is deeply saddened to read of Todds Obit. The many years of growing up together, many pranks and parties we've shared. We have those to be thankful for. And for our dads who were both the roots of laughter and shenanigans they bestowed upon each of us.. May Todd rest in peace and you find peace within your hearts.

“ Dear Janey, Reed, and Brad, I am so saddened to hear about Todd. Too young!! I can't relay any fun stories or crazy antics, from our childhood - all I can say is he was my friend. Love, Marian Webster Hawkins
