“ Vi had been the best and the sweetest neighbor for my wife and I over the last few years.

We will truly miss her big beautiful smile, sense of humor, love for the holiday season and talking to her about her beloved Chicago Cubs and Bears. She shared wonderful stories with us about having spent time in different parts of the world as a military kid. She spoke very proudly of her children and grandchildren - she loved them dearly!

Vi was a very grateful and accommodating individual. I specifically remember giving her a "heads up" about some late night get-togethers at our place (right above her's), and that it may get a bit loud. She would always smile, and reply "live your lives!" with a playful punch.

Rest in peace, Vi & thank you for all you did for us!

My sincerest condolences to family and friends.
