“ Grandma, although we are grateful you did not suffer long, we already miss you terribly and are so very sorry we did not have a proper goodbye. You were the best grandmother anyone could hope for. You inspired me to pursue music, as you had as a girl; you were patient, loving, an independent woman before your time and so much fun too. You made Mike feel so welcome in our family, and although he only had a handful of opportunities to see you, you made such an impact. We were so honoured that you were a big part of our wedding day. You inspire us to cherish each day, to see the world and most of all to love the family you created and took care of. We will always love you and remember you each and every day. Sending love and light from across the Pond XOXOXO
