“ I remember the first time I met Wayne. He had me laughing in the first 2 minutes and made me feel like I had known him for years. I thoroughly enjoyed all our conversations and he always had me laughing, busting Cory's chops mostly. It didn't take long to learn he was the type that would give the shirt off his back, even to a complete stranger, if they needed it. I'm grateful to have known him and my family sends our love and prayers for the whole Burnett family.
