“ Bill certainly sounds like my old friend from our army days of 1955/1956. We were stationed in Texas and Louisiana. We were great friends and even corresponded with each other when he was discharged several months before me. I was from Chicago and Bill was from Sycamore. I have tried several times many years ago to track him down but was not successful. One of our friends, Tom Prince, told me he did locate him years ago and he was managing a supermarket. What I remember most about Bill was his tremendous sense of humor! We had a million laughs together. My sympathies to the family and I regret that I wasn't able to re_connect with him over the years.
